GLOBE TROTTER WHO EXPECTS TO FIND THE NORTH POLE.

Captain G. Melville Boynton, Explorer, Lecturer, Pedestrian, Etc., Registers in Kansas City—Is Walking to Frisco.

"Captain G. Melville Boynton, explorer, lecturer and pedestrian, of no where in particular, but from everywhere." This is the way a dusty and weary looking individual registered at the Alhambra hotel in Kansas City, Kan., yesterday, after making arrangements with the proprietor to sleep on the back porch of the hotel over night. The captain may be destined to be a great man. He thinks he is. He might be a fanatic, and he may be a harmless vagabond; at any rate he tells an interesting story about himself.

According to his statement he is now on his way from Buffalo, N. Y., to San Francisco, where, after planting his signature on the register of the Palace hotel of that city, he proposes to right about face and walk back to the office of the Buffalo Citizen in Buffalo. He claims to have left the office of the Citizen promptly at high noon on June 25 last. He is to walk to San Francisco and back by June 25 of next year without funds. During his journey, he has figured out to represent 1,444 miles, he is to spend every night in a hotel, private home or wayside tavern. Nor is he to ride a single step of the way. This is his story. He claims to have a leather sleeping suit in which he completed his journey.

He locks himself up when he lies down, and he is to spend every night in a hotel, private home or wayside tavern. Nor is he to ride a single step of the way. This is his story. He claims to have a leather sleeping suit in which he completed his journey.

FREE CURES—THE DEAF HEAR

Free Medicine Offer Extended Only Till Middle of September, When Branaman Medical Institute Will Occupy Its New Quarters.

Despite the hardest work on part of contractors the new quarters for the Branaman Medical Institute will not be ready for occupancy before the middle of September. On that account the famous Dr. Branaman wishes to have it understood that those whom he was unable to see during the last part of August when the offer of one free month's medicine was given, will be now accorded the privilege of securing this great opportunity. One month's free medicine will be extended to every person who renews a course of treatment or who begins a course of treatment before the middle of September, when the new quarters will be ready for the Branaman Medical Institute. It is only a great deal of persuasion that Dr. Branaman has induced to extend the free month's offer of medicine, so those who need a cure for Hay Fever, Asthma, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Rheumatism, Stomach, Kidney, Liver, Bladder Disease, Female Disease and any other chronic disease, should avail themselves of this opportunity. The free offer of medicine will be positively withdrawn as soon as a Branaman Medical Institute has been located in its new quarters about the middle of September.

A month's medicine, $5, but to every patient beginning a course of treatment before the middle of September, one month's medicine will be given absolutely free, without any obligation on the part of the individual to pay a cent therefor.

Write for symptom blanks. Consultation and advice free.

LOVES HIS PROFESSION.

Newspaper Makers Find Their Work Fascinating and Are Likely to Stick to It.

From the Atlanta Constitution.

As a rule a man is not obliged to stick to the profession which he enters in early life. Lawyers stray into other occupations; ministers abandon the pulpit; doctors become planters, and teachers succeed as business men. Even politicians occasionally reform, and settle down to the useful pursuits of private life. Men of strong will power give up former old associations and habits, and form new ones over their heads.

The conspicuous exception is the journalist. He may be convinced that he will find more honest and profitable occupations, and he may go into them, but his profession will always tempt him, and he will find himself returning to it sooner or later.

For have read Uncle Remus' tar baby story.

Journalism is the tar baby of the profession. It is the one thing which he cannot get away from. It is the one thing which he cannot get away from. It is the one thing which he cannot get away from.
